Welcome

Before you start

Every fare, timetable and opening time in this guide was checked in November 2026 on official websites or by phone with the companies that run them. Where we used anything else, we say so.

⚠ Prices and times in Japan do change, often in spring (when timetables are revised) or when taxes or fuel costs change. Before you travel, check the official websites named in each chapter, especially for trains, buses and opening days.

Know before you go

The points that most often catch travelers out, and that quick online answers often get wrong or leave out. We checked each one with the operators themselves in November 2026.

	What to know	Ch.
1	Fuji Excursion train: board Cars 1–3 only. The other cars go somewhere else.	2
2	Japan Rail Pass covers Shinjuku–Otsuki only. Otsuki to Kawaguchiko costs ¥1,770 extra (fare + express fee). Children's express fee on this section is ¥400.	2
3	Miss your highway bus and the ticket is void. No later bus, no refund. Change or cancel before departure.	2
4	No big suitcases on the sightseeing buses. Use the coin lockers right outside Kawaguchiko Station's ticket gates (¥700–1,200).	2
5	Red Line only? Don't buy the 1-Day Pass. Single tickets are cheaper. Buy it if you ride the Green or Blue Line.	2
6	Chureito Pagoda is about 25 minutes on foot from Shimoyoshida Station, including 398 steps.	3
7	Oshino Hakkai: you may touch the water, but never throw coins in.	3
8	The ¥1,000-bill view at Lake Motosu is about 1 hour on foot from the bus stop. Buses run about once an hour; last bus back 16:45.	3
9	Fuji-Q Highland has closing days, and its Ferris wheel is closed until January 31, 2027.	3
10	Mt. Fuji is often hidden in summer. In 2025 the whole mountain was visible at 8 a.m. on only 2 days in June.	1
11	Tattoos: Fuji Choubou no Yu Yurari says no; Royal Hotel Kawaguchiko says yes.	4
12	The Kawaguchiko Music Forest Museum is closed on Tuesdays and Wednesdays.	4

FROM THE AUTHOR

I made this guide because the information on getting to Mt. Fuji is spread across dozens of Japanese websites, and quick online answers are often out of date or wrong. The text was written with the help of AI tools, but I checked every fare, timetable and opening time myself on official websites and by phone with the railway and bus companies, museums, hot springs and tourist offices, in November 2026. — Tama

June to August? Mt. Fuji is often hidden. Keep Course C ready.

Big suitcase? Leave it in a locker just outside Kawaguchiko Station's ticket gates.

CHAPTER

01

Before You Go

One goal: when you go from Tokyo to see Mt. Fuji on a day trip, don't waste your time on confusing transport or bad timing. Every place in this guide is in the Fuji Five Lakes area (Yamanashi), the easiest part of Mt. Fuji to reach from Tokyo.

What if Mt. Fuji is hidden? If Fuji is hiding

1. Check a live camera the night before and that morning
   For example, Fuji Motosuko Resort (near Lake Motosu) links to free YouTube live cameras from its official website. No sign-up. Search "Fuji Motosuko Resort live camera".

2. Keep your dates flexible
   If you are in Tokyo for several days, keep your Fuji day movable and pick the clearest one.

3. Use the rainy-day plan
   Course C in Chapter 4: food, a hot spring and museums.

When to Go

Winter: 2 days in 3. Summer: a few days a month.

Mt. Fuji hides behind clouds far more often than most visitors expect. Here are the days each month when the whole mountain was visible — the best season is clear at a glance.

Numbers above the bars = days the whole mountain was visible. Fuji City (Shizuoka) "Mt. Fuji observation record" 2025, observed every morning at 8 a.m. from City Hall.

Nov–Feb
Best bet. The whole mountain was visible about 2 days in 3.

Mar–May · Sep–Oct
Whole mountain visible on 6–13 days a month.

Jun–Aug
Whole mountain visible on only a few days a month.

NOTE

This is one year's record, seen from the Shizuoka side. The Fuji Five Lakes area can differ. Always check a live camera before you go.

CHAPTER

02 Getting There from Tokyo

Train or Bus?

Train or bus?

Train (Fuji Excursion)

1:55 approx. ¥4,200

✓ Rarely delayed
✓ More legroom, you can walk around
× Pricier · only 4 round trips a day

Best for: tight schedules, the trip back on busy days

vs

Highway bus

1:45 approx. ¥2,000+

✓ Cheaper · many departures
✓ Seat belts · toilet on board
× Depends on traffic

Best for: budget travelers, weekday trips

OUR PICK

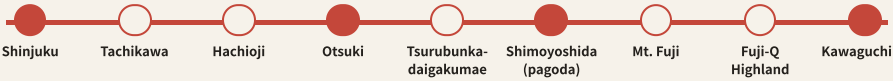

Highway buses can be late when roads are busy. If you must be back in Tokyo by a set time, take the train back.

A — By Train

The Fuji Excursion: Shinjuku to the lake, no change.

Shinjuku → Kawaguchiko	Adult one way	Trains	Tickets on sale
1:54–1:58	¥4,200	4 a day	1 month
	fare ¥2,580 + express ¥1,620	+1 on some days	before, from 10 a.m.

Stops Stops

To Shimoyoshida (nearest station to the pagoda): ¥4,010. No unreserved seats: buy a reserved seat or a "seat-unspecified" ticket.

Board Cars 1–3 only. The Fuji Excursion has just 3 cars. Between Shinjuku and Otsuki it is coupled to another express (Azusa or Kaiji). In any other car you will end up somewhere else.

1	2	3	4	5	6	⋯

Fuji Excursion → Kawaguchiko — Azusa / Kaiji (split at Otsuki, goes elsewhere)

How to book

On the English site for overseas visitors, "JR-EAST Train Reservation", or on Eki-net.

Book morning trains early

Morning trains can be almost full, even on weekdays.

Which side for Mt. Fuji? Which side?

On the Fujikyu section (Otsuki → Kawaguchiko) the view switches sides, so there is no single best side.

Otsuki → Gekkoji	Gekkoji → Mt. Fuji Sta.	Mt. Fuji → Kawaguchiko

Facing the direction of travel; the opposite on the way back. Section lengths approximate. (Fujikyu Railway official Q&A and JR East official site, November 2026.)

Timetable

Weekday timetable

From March 14, 2026 · Fujikyu Railway official. Weekend times differ. Always check the latest timetable before booking.

Out · To Kawaguchiko

Train	Shinjuku	Kawaguchiko
Fuji Excursion 3	7:30	9:28
Fuji Excursion 7	8:30	10:26
Fuji Excursion 11	9:30	11:28
Fuji Excursion 15	10:30	12:24

Back · To Tokyo

Train	Kawaguchiko	Shinjuku
Fuji Excursion 32	14:08	16:08
Fuji Excursion 36	14:58	16:59
Fuji Excursion 44	16:48	18:48
Fuji Excursion 48	17:41	19:48

If you have a rail pass

Japan Rail Pass (nationwide)

It covers Shinjuku–Otsuki only. Otsuki–Kawaguchiko (Fujikyu Railway) costs extra.

From Otsuki	Fare	Express fee	Total (one way)
to Kawaguchiko	1,170	600	1,770
to Shimoyoshida (pagoda)	980	600	1,580

Children pay half the fare (Otsuki–Kawaguchiko ¥590) and a ¥400 express fee. Suica/PASMO work and are slightly cheaper (Otsuki–Kawaguchiko ¥1,161). The Fujikyu express fee is ¥600 whether you buy before boarding or on the train; if you are short of time, pay the difference at your exit station. (Official fare tables; confirmed by phone with Fujikyu call center, November 2, 2026.)

JR Tokyo Wide Pass (3 days)

For holders of non-Japanese passports only. It covers the whole Fujikyu Railway, so the Fuji Excursion is covered all the way from Shinjuku to Kawaguchiko.

- Before boarding, get a free reserved seat at a JR ticket machine or office; otherwise you may only use empty seats
- Fujikyu's own Fujisan Limited Express and Fujisan View Express reserved seats, and the Fuji Tozan Densha, cost extra
- Carry your original passport while using it

JR East official conditions, as of March 2026

If the train is full Plan B

About 20 minutes longer, and the Fujikyu section can't be booked on Eki-net. Fujikyu fare ¥1,170, plus an express fee if you take Fujikyu's own expresses:

Otsuki–Kawaguchiko	Express fee	Seat
Fujikyu express (basic)	400	—
Fujisan View Express Car 2	+200	Reserved
Fujisan View Express Car 1	+900	Premium car
Fujisan Ltd. Express Cars 1–2	+200	Reserved

Note: these fees are different from the Fuji Excursion's ¥600. (Fujikyu Railway official fare table, November 2026.)

B — By Highway Bus

Busta Shinjuku to Kawaguchiko Station.

To Kawaguchiko	Adult one way	Departures	No rest stop
1:45	¥2,000–2,200	10–60 min	Toilet
longer in traffic	cheaper online	apart	on board

It also stops at Fuji-Q Highland (about 1h40, same fare) and continues to Oshino Hakkai and Lake Yamanaka. In summer some buses go up to Mt. Fuji's 5th Station. No round-trip discount. All seats are reserved; choose window or aisle when booking. Women-only seats available.

Buying tickets

On sale 1 month ahead from 10 a.m. Online by credit card, or at the counters at Busta Shinjuku, Fuji-Q Highland, Kawaguchiko Station and Mt. Fuji Station. Online bookings not paid by the deadline are cancelled automatically.

Cancelling

Free until the bus leaves except a ¥110 fee per one-way ticket (may vary). Cancel online if you bought online, at a counter if you bought there. You can cancel one leg of a round trip.

If you miss the bus

Buses leave exactly on time. Once it has left, your ticket is void: no later bus, no refund. If you'll be late, change or cancel before departure.

Luggage & children

One suitcase per person goes free in the hold. Children of elementary-school age and under pay half. One preschool child per adult rides free on your lap.

English help: main booking sites (e.g. FUJIYAMA CONNECT) work in English, Chinese and Korean; some staff at the Kawaguchiko and Mt. Fuji Station counters speak English or Chinese. Fujikyu call center 0570-022956. (Highway Bus.com and Fujikyu Bus official FAQ, November 2026.)

Getting around: three colored loop buses.

Sightseeing buses loop around the lakes from Kawaguchiko Station. Remember the color of the line you need and you won't get lost.

Not to scale. Lake Shoji's stop is "Kodaki Fuji View Point"; Oishi Park's is "Kawaguchiko Natural Living Center".

Line	Main stops	Places in this guide
Red	Ropeway ("Yuransen · Ropeway Iriguchi"), Kawaguchiko Music Forest Museum, Itchiku Kubota Art Museum, Oishi Park ("Kawaguchiko Natural Living Center")	②④
Green	Saiko, Saiko Iyashi-no-Sato Nenba, Saiko Bat Cave, Fugaku Wind Cave (end)	⑤
Blue	Mt. Fuji World Heritage Center, Narusawa Ice Cave, Fugaku Wind Cave, Lake Shoji, Lake Motosu	⑧

ⓘ Chureito Pagoda (①) and Oshino Hakkai (③) are not on these loop buses. See Chapter 3 for how to get there.

Bus Passes

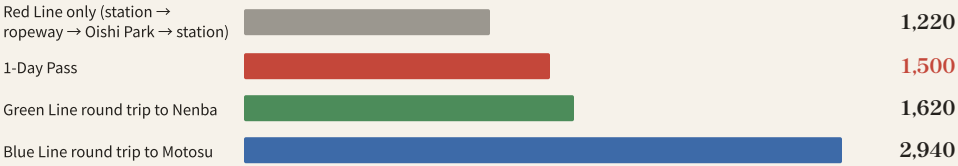

Is a bus pass worth it?

"Kawaguchiko · Saiko · Motosuko Sightseeing Coupon": unlimited rides on all three lines plus regular route buses in the area (not the Shibazakura shuttle).

Pass	Adult (junior high+)	Child (elementary)
1-Day Pass	1,500	750
2-Day Pass	2,000	1,000
2-Day Pass + ropeway round trip + boat (or one-way boat to Oishi Park)	3,300	1,650

Buy at the bus ticket office at Kawaguchiko Station or online (Fujikyu's FUJIYAMA CONNECT, until noon on the day). The 2-Day Pass runs for 2 days from the date you choose. Online purchases: free cancellation until the day before, full charge on the day.

What do single tickets cost? Pay as you go

VERDICT

Red Line only? Single tickets are cheaper. If you ride the Green or Blue Line, buy the 1-Day Pass.

Fares by line (adult, ¥) Fares

Line	From Kawaguchiko Station to	Fare
Red	Ropeway	180
	Itchiku Kubota Art Museum	440
	Oishi Park (Natural Living Center) · ropeway→Oishi Park ¥470	570

Fujikyu Bus official site, FUJIYAMA CONNECT and official fare table, November 2026. "Motosuko" stop confirmed by phone with Fujikyu Bus, November 2, 2026.

2-Day Passport

Mt. FUJI Passport

Two days of unlimited rides on the Red, Green and Blue Lines, the "Fujikko-go" (Fujiyoshida · Oshino Hakkai · Lake Yamanaka), the World Heritage Loop Bus, route buses in the Five Lakes area, and the Fujikyu Railway. Discounts at sights too.

Pass	Fujikyu Railway section	Adult	Child
Mt. FUJI Passport	Shimoyoshida–Kawaguchiko	3,300	1,660
Mt. FUJI Passport "Train Set"	Otsuki–Kawaguchiko (whole line)	4,700	2,360

Express trains need an express ticket; the Fuji Tozan Densha needs a seat ticket. Highway buses and 5th Station buses are not included. Sold at Fujikyu Bus counters at Mt. Fuji and Kawaguchiko stations (Train Set also at the Fujikyu counter at Otsuki) and as a mobile ticket. No refunds once used. (Fujikyu Railway official site, November 2026.)

JR PASS HOLDERS

Otsuki–Kawaguchiko is ¥1,170 one way (¥2,340 return). If you will ride the loop buses too, the "Train Set" (¥4,700) covers both.

Good to know on the loop buses Good to know

IC cards OK

Suica, PASMO, ICOCA and other Japanese IC cards work. Tap when you get on and off.

Children

Ages 6–12 pay about half. Ages 1–5 ride free, one per paying passenger (pay if they use their own seat). From junior high, adult fare.

No big luggage

One bag per person that fits on the rack or your lap. Only highway buses have a luggage hold. Leave suitcases in a locker first.

Kawaguchiko Station lockers

Right outside the ticket gates.

700 S 1,000 M 1,200 L (¥)

Fujikyu Bus official FAQ, November 2026. Lockers confirmed by phone with Fujikyu call center, November 3, 2026.

Loop Bus Times

Remember the last bus.

The loop buses stop early in the evening. The Blue Line runs only about once an hour, so plan backwards from your return time.

The 1,000-Yen View

Lake Motosu (the ¥1,000 bill view)

The view of Mt. Fuji printed on the back of the old ¥1,000 note. It's free, but by bus and on foot it takes about 3 hours.

Plan carefully Plan it like this

AM — Blue Line from Kawaguchiko Station to "Lake Motosu Tourist Information Center"
About 1 hour · adult ¥1,470. About once an hour; last bus from the station 15:35.

Walk about 1 hour to the viewpoint near Koansō
If you get lost, show locals the name: 浩庵荘.

15:30 — Start walking back by now
It's 1 hour on foot each way.

16:45 — Last bus from the Tourist Information Center
Arrives at Kawaguchiko Station 17:45.

Spring: Fuji Shibazakura Festival

At Fuji Motosuko Resort near the lake: about 500,000 pink moss phlox in front of Mt. Fuji. In 2026, April 11–May 24 (changes every year with the flowers). Check dates and entry fee on the official website.

Ready-Made Courses

All times assume you arrive at Kawaguchiko Station around 10:30 and leave around 17:00.

COURSE A Relaxed day (first visit)

10:30 — Arrive at Kawaguchiko Station
This course uses only the Red Line, so single tickets are cheaper than the 1-Day Pass (Chapter 2).

11:00 — Mt. Fuji Panoramic Ropeway (④)
Red Line, about 11 min

12:30 — Lunch: hoto near the station
Chapter 5

14:00 — Red Line to Oishi Park (②)
Soft-serve and Mt. Fuji across the lake.

15:30 — Bus back to the station · souvenirs

17:00 — Train or bus back to Tokyo
If you must be back by a set time, the train is safer.

COURSE B For Photographers

A day for photographers

7:30 — Fuji Excursion 3 from Shinjuku
Get off at Shimoyoshida.

9:13 — Arrive at Shimoyoshida
Weekdays and weekends (Fujikyu Railway official timetable, from March 14, 2026).

9:40 — Chureito Pagoda (①)
About 25 min on foot. Beat the tour buses.

12:00 — Lunch: Yoshida udon
Near Shimoyoshida (Chapter 5).

13:30 — Back to Kawaguchiko, then Oishi Park (②)
Red Line

14:45 — Oishi Park → Kawaguchiko Station
Red Line, about 27 min.

15:40 — Green Line to Nenba (⑤)
Arrives 16:20. Last entry 16:30 — don't miss this bus.

17:10 — Green Line from Nenba to the station
Arrives 17:45. Last bus from Nenba 17:40 (arrives 18:15).

☆ Dec–Feb: Nenba's last entry is 16:00. Take the 15:10 bus instead (arrives about 15:50).

Ticket for this course

You ride the Green Line, so the loop-bus 1-Day Pass (¥1,500) saves money.

COURSE C Rainy Day

Rainy day: museums and a hot spring.

Confirmed by phone with each facility, November 3, 2026. Walking time to Royal Hotel: Google Maps (November 2026).

Chapter 05 · Local Food

Two local dishes.

Hoto Hoto

Thick, flat wheat noodles simmered with pumpkin and vegetables in a miso soup, served bubbling in an iron pot. Perfect on a cold day.

Example: Hōtō Kura Fujinari (Kawaguchiko), signature "Golden Hōtō" (pork or chicken)

1,815 yen

6931 Funatsu, Fujikawaguchiko. Restaurant's own menu on Google, November 2026.

How to eat it
It's very hot: scoop some into the small bowl and let it cool.

Vegetarian?
The soup may contain fish stock. Ask: "Dashi ni sakana wa haitte imasu ka?"

Yoshida Udon Yoshida Udon

Fujiyoshida's local udon: very thick and very firm, in a soy-miso soup topped with cabbage and seasoned horse meat or beef.

Example: Miura Udon (near Shimoyoshida Station, handy after the pagoda). Most dishes up to about ¥900.

Niku udon (most popular · horse meat & cabbage)	about ¥700
Kaedama (extra noodles)	about ¥300

Menu listed on Google, November 2026. Prices may change.

How to order How to order

1. Many places have a ticket machine at the entrance: pay first.
2. Hand the ticket to the staff. Pointing at the menu photo is fine.
3. No tipping in Japan.

Good to know

Beat the crowds Beat the crowds

Arrive by 9–10 a.m.
Tour buses arrive before noon.

Pagoda first
Before 9 a.m. if you can.

Go on a weekday
Much quieter than weekends and holidays.

Photo manners Respect the locals

This area struggles with overtourism. Please, for the people who live here:

Stay off the road
Don't stand in the road or block cars for photos.

No private property
Don't enter private land or shops just for pictures.

Quiet in residential areas
People live here.

Take your rubbish home
Japan has very few public bins.

Money, toilets, bags Money, toilets, bags

Carry some cash
IC cards work on the Fujikyu Railway and loop buses, but some small shops and restaurants are cash only.

Toilets
Free, clean toilets at stations, parks and convenience stores.

Luggage
Lockers right outside Kawaguchiko Station's ticket gates (S ¥700 · M ¥1,000 · L ¥1,200). Store bags before the loop buses.

Lockers confirmed by phone with Fujikyu call center, November 3, 2026.
